Sad News

It is with great sadness that I need to inform you that one of our lunchtime supervisors, Susan Broad, has sadly died. Over the Christmas period, she found out that she was battling cancer. She remained in high spirits and entertained her colleagues at work throughout. On the 15th of January, she lost her fight. She will be missed by everyone at Stafford Leys and I know, from talking to her friends, that she will also be missed in the community. I am sure you will all join me in passing on our condolences to her family at this very difficult time.

Reading

We have signed up to the online reading website, Rising Stars. The information about how to sign up has already been sent to you. Teachers will be assigning books from next week.

Parents Survey

Thankyou to everyone that filled in the parent survey for us last week. Overall, it was a very positive picture. There were a few suggestions that we will be looking at going forward and these include;

- Looking at when work is posted to support working families.
- Finding ways to set more of the work away from screens.

Review of Learning

We had a very positive review of our online learning from Bradgate Education Partnership. They joined our online provision for a day last week and spoke to parents and children. They were very complimentary about our children and parents. They were very impressed with the amount of children engaging online. Thankyou for all of your support with this!
